Re: People v. Comfort Pinckney

Your Honor:

Pursuant to Criminal Procedure Law Section 460.20, I am submitting this letter as an application for permission to appeal to the Court of Appeals in the above case. No application has been made to a justice of the Appellate Division.

On March 14, 2006, the Appellate Division, Second Department, affirmed a judgment rendered on July 29, 2003, by the Supreme Court, Queens County, convicting the defendant of second-degree murder and second- and third-degree criminal possession of a weapon, and sentencing him to concurrent prison terms of 25 years to life, five years, and three years, respectively.

I am enclosing copies of the briefs filed in the Appellate Division, including appellant's own pro se supplemental brief, and that Court's decision, as well as the pages of the transcript where appellant's issues have been preserved. Appellant argued in his principal brief that he was denied his due process rights when the prosecutor committed misconduct during summations, see Darden v. Wainwright, 477 U.S. 168 (1986), which the Appellate Division found was partially unpreserved and, in any event, without merit. To the extent that the claim is unpreserved, appellant argues to this Court that counsel was ineffective for failing to preserve his claim. See Strickland v. Washington, 466 U.S. 668, 687-96 (1984); People v. Baldi, 54 N.Y.2d 137, 147 (1981). In his supplemental brief, appellant argued the following: (1) the hearing improperly curtailed defense counsel's crossexamination of a police witness, erroneously admitted the photo array into evidence and relied on evidence that was subsequently discredited at trial, see Davis v. Alaska, 415 U.S. 308 (1974); Collins v. Scully, 755 F.2d 16, 18 (2d Cir. 1985); (2) the lineup was unduly suggestive, see Manson v. Brathwaite, 432 U.S. 98 (1977); (3) the People failed to preserve photographs of the lineup, see Buie v. Sullivan, 923 F.2d 10, 12 (2d Cir. 1990)(bad faith failure to preserve evidence violates due process); and (4) the trial court erred when it denied the defense motion to preclude admission of a confirmatory identification for which no notice was served, see Collins, supra (erroneously admitted evidence so tainted the proceedings that they were rendered fundamentally unfair).

If I can provide any further information or be of any further assistance, I would be happy to do so.

Respectfully yours,

Lisa Napoli

11.(B)(5) GROUNDS RAISED

Counsel failed to raise on direct appeal ineffective assistance of trial counsel based on trial counsel's failure to (1) object to the trial courts ruling permitting prosecution witness Prague Alexander to make a surprised in-court identification of appellant based on a purported C.P.L 710.30 confirmatory identification notice, which confirmatory identification Alexander denied making on cross examination, and (2) to challenge the legal sufficiency of the evidence of appellant's indictment in light of desir's trial testimony that he lied to the grand jury when he testified to actually seeing appellant shoot Hammonds when, in fact, he only heard shots after fleeing the area.

MEMORANDUM

SUPREME COURT, QUEENS COUNTY CRIMINAL TERM, PART K-22

THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK

: By: Robert C. McGann, J.S.C.

-against-

: Dated: June 10, 2008

: Ind. No. 1497-00

COMFORT PINCKNEY,

Defendant.

The defendant, Comfort Pinckney, moves before this Court for an order vacating the judgment of conviction of this Court dated, July 29, 2003, on the grounds of ineffective assistance of counsel.

The defendant was indicted for Murder in the Second Degree, as well as other charges, arising out of an incident outside a bar. The defendant had a dispute with Carmain Desir and Michael Hammond. The defendant went to his car, took out a 9 mm pistol, and shot Michael Hammond in the face. The defendant fled in a car owned by his brother in law, and identified by a bouncer as the one he saw after the shooting. The defendant was identified in a lineup and at trial by the eyewitness Desir.

Following a jury trial, conducted by Justice Rosenzweig, the defendant was found guilty of Intentional murder as well as Criminal Possession of a Weapon in the Second and Third Degree.

A 330.30 motion to set aside the verdict was filed, alleging ineffective assistance of counsel, and was denied by the Court, in March, 2003. A second motion was filed on June 16, 2003, alleging ineffective assistance, in that defense counsel failed to present alibi witnesses, was similarly denied by the Court on July 1, 2003.

On July 29, 2003, the defendant was sentenced to 25 years to life.

The defendant appealed to the Appellate Division, alleging an improper summation by the People at trial. A pro se supplemental brief was filed by the defendant. On March 14, 2006, the Appellate Division affirmed the conviction, People v. Pinckney, 27 A.D. 3d 581.

Leave to appeal to the Court of Appeals was denied on May 9, 2006. People v. Pinckney, 6 N.Y.3d 897.

The defendant now moves to vacate his judgment of conviction alleging a number of grounds.

First, the Court concludes that the defendant is procedurally barred from consideration. A motion to vacate must be denied if, at the time of the motion, sufficient facts appeared on the record that would have allowed the appellate court to review the claim raised in the motion, but were not reviewed because the defendant unjustifiable failed to raise it. C.P.L. 440.10(2)c. All of the present claims by the defendant appeared on the record and could have been raised on direct appeal.

Substantively, the defendant's claims are similarly without merit.

Right to Counsel Claim. The defendant initially claims his right to counsel was violated because a photographic array was displayed to a witness, while he was allegedly represented by counsel on an unrelated matter. This claim is entirely without merit. There is no right to counsel associated with an investigatory identification procedure held prior to the defendant's arrest.

Kirby v. Illinois, 406 U.S. 683.

Ineffective assistance claim. The defendant claims that he was denied effective assistance of counsel because trial counsel failed to conduct a sufficient investigation, failed to interview alibi witnesses, failed to explore a valid defense, failed to challenge the existence of probable cause and failed to have purportedly exculpatory evidence tested for DNA. All of these claims are without merit. An affidavit filed by trial counsel shows that trial counsel closely worked with the defendant and his mother to formulate a trial strategy. Counsel inspected the crime scene with an investigator, and extensively conducted cross examination of witnesses. Trial counsel states that neither the defendant nor his mother ever told him about potential alibi witnesses and that after consultation with the defendant and his mother they all decided to pursue a defense of mistaken identification. Trial counsel also states that the defendant never told him that he was in Brooklyn on the night of the murder or that he could produce witnesses to that effect.

For these reasons, the motion to vacate the conviction is without merit and is denied.

Lastly, the defendant moves to test certain evidence for DNA pursuant to 440.30. This application is without merit. C.P.L. 440.30 requires the defendant to show that such testing would result in "a reasonable probability that the verdict would have been more favorable to the defendant."

The item which the defendant wishes to be tested is a cap which was found at the scene. There is not testimony at the trial which links the cap either to the shooter or to anyone else at the scene. Therefore, whether the defendant's DNA was on the cap or not, would not give rise to a reasonable probability that the result of the defendant's trial would have been different. Therefor, the application to test this evidence is denied.

The application is denied in all other respects.

Order entered accordingly.

The clerk of the court is directed to mail a copy of this decision and order to the attorney for the defendant.

COMFORT PINCKNEY, Defendant.

The defendant, Comfort Pinckney, moves before this Court for an order to reconsider the decision of this Court dated, June 10, 2008, which denied his motion to vacate the judgment of conviction of this Court.

The defendant was indicted for Murder in the Second Degree, as well as other charges, arising out of an incident outside a bar. The defendant had a dispute with Carmain Desir and Michael Hammond. The defendant went to his car, took out a 9 mm pistol, and shot Michael Hammond in the face. A 330.30 motion to set aside the verdict was filed, alleging ineffective assistance of counsel, and was denied by the Court, in March, 2003. A second motion was filed on June 16, 2003, alleging ineffective assistance, in that defense counsel failed to present alibi witnesses, was similarly denied by the Court on July 1, 2003.

On July 29, 2003, the defendant was sentenced to 25 years to life.

The defendant appealed to the Appellate Division, alleging an improper summation by the People at trial. A pro se supplemental brief was filed by the defendant. On March 14, 2006, the Appellate Division affirmed the conviction, People v. Pinckney, 27 A.D. 3d 581.

Leave to appeal to the Court of Appeals was denied on May 9, 2006. People v. Pinckney, o N.Y.3d 897.

The defendant now moves for an order reconsidering the decision of this Court dated June 10, 2008, which denied his motion to vacate the judgment of conviction.

The defendant claims that the Court did not consider all of the submissions made to the Court, Specifically, the defendant claims that he was afforded ineffective assistance of counsel.

In its original decision, the Court considered all of the material submitted by the defendant and concluded that the defendant was not denied effective assistance of counsel. The Court did not overlook any of the material submitted to it.

Therefore, the motion to reconsider is denied.

The application is denied in all other respects.

Order entered accordingly.

The clerk of the court is directed to mail a copy of this decision and order to the attorney for the defendant.

Petitioner was denied Due Process when the lower court found trial counsel's affidavit to hold greater probative value than the certified trial transcript.

Supporting Facts

The lower court denied, that portion, of petitioners motion to vacate judgment alleging trial counsel denied him compulsory process to call witness on his behalf.

Based on trial counsel's off-the-record affidavit, claiming he was never informed about the existence of alibi witness. Disregarding the certified trial record evidence in which trial counsel is found placing, Brenda Carroll, Dontay McAllister, and Brian Follins, the alibi witnesses he claims never to have been informed of, on the defense witness list.

GROUND THREE

Petitioner's right to due process and a fair trial was violated when he was identified based on an unduly suggestive line up in a manner that was so unnecessarily suggestive and conducive to irreparable mistaken identity.

SUPPORTING FACTS

Petitioner was placed in a line up with fillers visibly older smaller and with full facial hair, where petitioner was a two hundred and twenty pound male in his early twenties. The description of the perpetrator was a young male in his early twenties, two hundred pounds, and petitioner was the only one in the line up who fit that description. Further, the police told the witness the shooter would be in the line up. Therefore, petitioner stood out in the unnecessarily suggestive line up.

SUPPORTING FACTS

Counsel failed to raise on direct appeal ineffective assitance of trial counsel based on trail counsel's failure to (1) object to the trial courts ruling permitting prosecution witness Prague Alexander to make a surprise in-court identification of appellant based on a purported C.P.L 710.30 confirmatory identification notice, which confirmatory identification Alexander denied making on cross examination, and (2) to challenge the legal sufficiency of the evidence of appellant's indictment in light of Desir's trial testimony that he lied to the grand jury when he testified to actually seeing appellant shoot Hammonds when, in fact, he only heard shots after fleeing the area.

TIMELINESS OF PETITION

By judgment rendered by the Supreme Court Queens County, on February 10, 2003, petitioner was convicted of murder in the second degree and related weapons counts. The Appellate Division Second Department, unanimously affirmed petitioners judgment of conviction by order dated March 14, 2006. (See People by. Pinckney, 27 A.D. 3d 581).

On May 9, 2006, the Court of Appeals denied petitioner request for leave to appeal (See People v. Pinckney 6 N.Y. 3d 897). Peitioner did not file for a writ of certiorari in the United States Supreme Court. (See 28 U.S.C. §2101 (d); Sup. Ct. R. 131).

The one year limitation period for filing a writ of Habeas Corpus, in this case, began on August 9, 2006.

On May 29, 2007, petitioner filed a motion to vacate judgment, said motion was denied by the Supreme Court Queens County on June 10, 2008, and motion to re-argue on March 24, 2009. By order dated June 9, 2009, the Appellate Division Second Department denied petitioner request to appeal the denial of his motion to vacate judgment.

Petitioner then, on June 16, 2009, filed with the Appellate Division SEcond Department a writ of error coram nobis which the Appellate Division denied by order dated NOvember 24, 2009. Petitioner received said order of denial on December 7, 2009, and leave to appeal was sought on December 30, 2009. The Court of Appeals denied petitioners application seeking leave to appeal on MAKCH 4 , 2010. (See 28 U.S.C. § 2244 (d)(2)).

Therefore, petitioner is within the one year limitation period for filing the instant application for a writ of Habeas Corpus.

Therefore, petitioner asks that the Court grant the fo	ollowing relief: CONVICTION REVERSED,
INDICTMENT DISMISSED	WITH PREJUDICE OR IN THE AITERNATIVE A NEW T
or any other relief to which petitioner may be entitle	ed.
